JUNE 17, 2021 3:30PM

- Ramsay Ballew
- Jennie Stapp (Vice Chair)
- Mayor Wilmot Collins
- Lou Archambault
- Chelly Hasquet
- Amada Reese

1. The meeting was called to order at 3:32.
2. Chalk Up Helena. Amanda created a shared a document for planning the event. 10 locations for chalk buckets around town. The idea is to have a month-long contest in July and receive digital entries with a cash prize. Ramsay expressed concern about launching in two weeks. The committee is willing to move forward with the event in August. The committee will have a table at the Rodney St block party on July 10 from 4pm-8pm to promote the event and also HPAC membership. There was discussion about doing popups at Revive at Five in July. There will be an interim meeting in July for additional planning.
3. Municipal Court Art: There was discussion about ideas for the art and the involvement of HPAC. Jennie motioned to refer MC to other related art services rather than manage a program through the HPAC. Amanda seconded the motion. Motion passed.
4. FY22 Public Art Projects: Ramsay opened up a discussion about projects that HPAC could be involved in this coming year. She said we have proposals from Amanda to be involved with the Livery Building and with the Rodney St projects. Some other projects could be Ghost Signs, Signal Boxes. Jennie mentioned murals were discussed previously and going away from Signal boxes. Troy said he would reach out to Transportation about opportunities for signal boxes at the 5pt intersection. Troy will look into funding for ghost signs with the City

Manager's contingency fund. Amanda suggested maybe the county would do matching funds if ghost signs were done at the Livery building, which is owned by the county. Ramsay mentioned dumpsters was another project discussed in the past. Troy will prompt Ryan Leland to get in touch with Amanda regarding Dumpsters.

5. Public Comment : Kathy Macefield mentioned anything done on private property needs to have an agreement made with the property owner and the City.

Meeting was adjourned at 5:05 PM.
